

Amendments to the Claims

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions, and listings, of claims in the application:

Listing of Claims:1. (Currently amended)

A dry-suit comprising:

- (a) a hollow element-proof fabric formed in the shape of a human body including two arms, two legs and a torso;
- (b) first and second inwardly extending pleats formed in each of the two legs; ~~and~~
- (c) first and second elastic element-proof fabric panels covering the respective first and second pleats and sealed around the periphery with the surrounding adjacent regions of the element-proof fabric of the dry-suit; and
- (d) one or more horizontal inwardly extending pleats formed in the rear waist region of the torso of the dry-suit and a waterproof fabric panel covering the horizontal waist area and sealed to the surrounding adjacent regions of the waist area of the torso of the dry suit.

2. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim 1 wherein the element-proof fabric is waterproof fabric.

3. *(Cancelled)*3⁴. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim 2 including pleats formed in the calf areas of the two legs of the dry-suit, and respective fabric panels formed of waterproof fabric covering the respective pleats in the calf areas of the two legs and being sealed to the surrounding adjacent regions of the respective legs of the dry-suit.

4⁵. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim 2 including pleats formed in the two shoulder regions of the torso of the dry-suit, and respective fabric panels formed of waterproof fabric covering the respective pleats in the two shoulder regions and being sealed to the surrounding adjacent regions of the respective shoulders of the dry-suit.

5⁶. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim 2 including horizontal pleats formed in the neck area of the torso of the dry-suit and a waterproof fabric panel covering the neck area of the dry-suit and sealed to the surrounding adjacent areas of the neck area of the dry-suit.

6⁷. (Currently amended)

A military suit comprising:

- (a) a hollow element-proof fabric formed in the shape of a human body including two arms, two legs and a torso;
- (b) pleats formed in each of the thigh areas of the two legs; and
- (c) elastic element-proof fabric panels covering the respective pleats and sealed with the surrounding adjacent thigh regions of the fabric of the military suit; and
- (d) pleats formed in the rear waist region of the torso of the military suit and an element-proof fabric panel covering the waist pleat area and sealed to the surrounding adjacent regions of the waist area of the torso of the military suit.

8. (Cancelled)

7⁹. (Currently amended)

A dry-suit comprising:

- (a) a hollow waterproof fabric formed in the shape of a human body including two arms, two legs and a torso;
- (b) first and second horizontal pleats extending inwardly along the front regions of each of the two legs of the dry-suit; and
- (c) first and second elastic waterproof fabric panels covering the respective first and second horizontal pleats and sealed with the surrounding adjacent regions of the fabric of the dry-suit; and
- (d) horizontal pleats located in the back region of the torso of the dry-suit.

10. (Cancelled)

8¹¹. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim 9 including horizontal pleats located in the rear surfaces of the two legs of the dry-suit.

10 ~~12~~. (Currently amended)

A dry-suit comprising:

(a) a hollow waterproof fabric formed in the shape of a human body including two arms, two legs and a torso;

(b) first and second vertical pleats extending inwardly along the front regions of each of the two legs of the dry-suit; and

(c) first and second elastic waterproof fabric panels covering the respective first and second vertical pleats and sealed with the surrounding adjacent regions of the fabric of the dry-suit; and

(d) vertical pleats located in the back region of the torso of the dry-suit.

13. (Cancelled)

11 ~~14~~. (Original)

A dry-suit as claimed in claim ~~12~~¹⁰ including vertical pleats located in the rear surfaces of the two legs of the dry-suit.

9 ~~15~~. (Original)

A dry suit as claimed in claim ~~15~~⁷ including vertical pleats and covering panels.